Office Action Summary

Part of Paper No. 7

Art Unit: 2873

DETAILED ACTIONDouble Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-34 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 33-39 of U.S. Patent No. 6,499,843 in view of Liang et al (US 6,270,221). Claims 33-39 include a method and a resultant contact lens made by that method where the lens is "in situ" and has a physical design parameter determined by an objective wavefront measurement. The lens of claims 33-39 have a non-customized surface shape and do not necessarily have a different value of a physical design parameter for a given correcting power. Although the trial lens of Liang et al is not "in situ", Liang et al does teach (col. 6, lines 46-57) that the wavefront leaving the eye is recreated at a particular location that can have trial lenses of known [corrective] refractive powers with each inherently having a different value of a physical design parameter. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to make a contact lens having a physical design parameter determined by an objective wavefront measurement of a plurality of in-situ trial contact lenses each having a different value of the physical design parameter for a given corrective power, since as shown by Liang et al different types of trial lenses for a given corrective power can be used in a wavefront measuring system. The type of correction, multifocal, toric, etc., is a function of the prescriptive requirements of the wearer.
